

Mission Together is the children's branch of Missio – the Catholic Church's official children's charity for overseas mission.

For 180 years we've helped Catholic children follow Jesus' example: by praying, fundraising and becoming missionaries themselves. We help people regardless of background or beliefs. That's how we show the all-embracing nature of the Catholic Church and the true meaning of 'mission'.

We provide life-changing aid around the world in whatever form it's needed. That could be a new classroom, a feeding programme, or a generator for a children's home. But we're a missionary charity: we support children's spiritual wellbeing too. We show them God loves every single one of them.

CAFOD (Catholic Agency For Overseas Development) is the official Catholic aid agency for England and Wales, and part of Caritas International. We work through the local Church to reach people and places that others can't.

Across the world we bring hope and compassion to poor communities, standing side by side with them to end poverty and injustice. We work on long-term development as well as responding to emergencies.

Caritas Internationalis is confederation of over 160 members who are working at the grassroots in almost every country of the world. When a crisis hits, Caritas is already on the ground. The diverse members give us our strength – from small groups of volunteers to some of the biggest global charities. Inspired by Catholic faith, Caritas is the helping hand of the Church – reaching out to the poor, vulnerable and excluded, regardless of race or religion, to build a world based on justice and fraternal love.

From the founding of the first Caritas in Germany in 1897, to the setting up of Caritas Internationalis in 1951, until today, Caritas has a rich history of listening respectfully to the suffering of the poor and giving them the tools to transform their own lives. The deep moral and spiritual principles of dignity, justice, solidarity and stewardship still guide Caritas today.

Caritas works with compassion and professionalism to respond to emergencies, promote development and advocate for a fair and just world.
